They've made #PalestineAction a terrorist group. I say this: I support them. I'd rather be a prisoner of conscience than a coward in comfort.

Britain now serves Tel Aviv's foreign policy, not its people. Join me. Stand up. Do not obey.

Mars Robertson

He did go to Leicester “battle tested” factory with the explicit intention of setting it on fire.

Not an arson though, genuine excuse to save lives, preventing a bigger crime.

Unfortunately, there was a serious security presence with high fences, barbed wire, dogs...

Instead made a small symbolic fire at the gate:

A friend advised me that this is potentially dangerous so the following day I went to MI5 and MI6 to report about a threat related to weapon factories being located on the UK soil:

MENTAL GYMNASTICS OF THE YEAR

How come there is "strong public interest" in running the military-industrial complex and supplying arms to Israel, even though there is International Criminal Court arrest warrant for Netanyahu for war crimes and crimes against humanity?

As a result of this judgement. Palestine Action is now a terrorist organisation and expressing support is up to 14 years in prison.

102. Having read the claimant's evidence and that of the UN Special Rapporteur carefully, and taken note of the oral submission made, I have concluded that the harm which would ensue if interim relief is refused but the claim later succeeds is insufficient to outweigh ~~the strong public interest in maintaining the order in force~~. In reaching this decision I have borne in mind my assessment of the merits of the claim at this early stage.
103. I have considered separately whether I should grant very short-term interim relief to protect the position in advance of any application to the Court of Appeal. I have decided, however, that any application for relief of that nature should be made to the Court of Appeal directly.

Conclusion

104. For these reasons, the application for interim relief is refused.
